ARTICLE 7

1. The Client's Risk Profile shall be defined on the basis of a model defined by the Bank. The Client's Risk Profile shall be defined before the planned conclusion of the Agreement on the provision of an investment advisory service.
2. In the event that the Client fails to provide the information required by the Bank in accordance with the model referred to in clause 1 or if the Client provides such information but in an insufficient scope, then the Bank shall notify the Client that the definition of the Risk Profile is not possible due to lack of information.
3. The Client's Risk Profile is valid 24 months for clients who are under 78 at the time of their Client's Risk Profile defining process, or 12 months for clients who are above 78 at the time of their Client's Risk Profile defining process. After the expiry of the term referred to in clause 3, the Bank requests information from the Client required to define the Client's Risk Profile. A change in the rules of assessing the Client's Risk Profile by the Bank shall have no effect on its validity. The Bank shall notify the Client of any such change by providing the Client with the information on a new defined Client's Profile.
4. The Bank may reassess the Risk Profile before the lapse of the term mentioned in clause 3 above.
5. The Client shall notify the Bank forthwith of every change in the information provided to the Bank required to define the Risk Profile.

TRANSACTION APPROPRIATENESS TESTS AND TRANSACTION STATUS

ARTICLE 8

1. Subject to the provisions of clause 2 below, the Bank shall test the Transaction for its suitability and appropriateness to the result of the Assessment of Knowledge and Experience of the Client as part of the Service of the acceptance and transmission of Orders to purchase and repurchase, and deliver other statements of will concerning Participation Titles by the Client or execute Orders on the Client's account to purchase or sell Debt Securities and in the scope of the conclusion of Dual Currency Investment Transactions.
2. Subject to the provisions of clause 6 below, in the event that the Client submits an Order of purchase in the scope of financial instruments being the subject-matter of an investment recommendation issued by the Bank on the basis of the Agreement on the provision of an investment advisory service, and the scope of the Order or the Order Amount differs from that indicated in the recommendation and the risk of the Client's Portfolio has been exceeded or was exceeded and has not been reduced as a result of the transaction, the Bank shall present Transaction Status to the Client. Transaction Status shall be defined for Orders of purchase submitted in the term of the validity of the recommendation. Transaction Status shall have the form of information presented to the Client in connection with the performance of the Agreement on the provision of an investment advisory service.
3. When issuing Transaction Status, the Bank shall act in the best interest of the Client.
4. If the Transaction suitability and appropriateness to the result of the Assessment of Knowledge and Experience referred to in clause 1 above is assessed negatively, it is possible for the Bank to execute the Client's Order or accept and transmit the Order, or to accept an order under such Agreement if and when the Client submits a declaration for the execution or acceptance and transmission of the Order, or an instruction under such Agreement – despite the Bank's warning of the negative test result. In the event that the Order is submitted by the attorney, the Bank shall test Transaction suitability and appropriateness to the result of the Assessment of Knowledge and Experience or the Bank shall assign Transaction Status in respect of the information gathered by the Bank concerning the Client being the principal.
5. When the Client uses CitiPhone or Citibank Online service and a particular Service is made available in a given Access Channel in accordance with the Table of the Functionality of Channels of Access, the Bank shall not assign Transaction Status but shall assess the Transaction solely within the context of the Transaction suitability and appropriateness to the result of the Assessment of Knowledge and Experience.
6. When conducting the Assessment of Knowledge and Experience or assigning Transaction Status, the Bank shall also test whether the Transaction which is the subject-matter of the Order of purchase falls within the scope of the Client's Target Group. The Bank shall contact the Client when the Transaction being the subject-matter of the Client's Order does not fall within the scope of the Client's Target Group.

ATTORNEYS

ARTICLE 9

1. The Client may appoint an attorney or attorneys authorized to represent the Client in the performance of the Agreement for the Service specified in Article 1 clause 1 sub-clause 1 letter a and Article 1 clause 1 sub-clause 1 letter b) of these Terms and Conditions, subject to the provisions of clause 2 below.
2. Unless the Parties specify otherwise, the powers delegated to the attorney or attorneys shall not concern the submission of Orders and Instructions concerning the Products through Remote Access Channels.
3. A power of attorney shall have a written form and shall be granted in the presence of the Bank's employee, by signing the Client's statement of will and affixing the signature by the attorney on a signature specimen card.
4. In the case of powers of attorney that are not granted in the presence of the Bank's employee, the signature of the Client's principal must be consistent with the specimen signature card filed at the Bank or notarized, or signed in another manner agreed on with the Bank.

5. So that a power of attorney could be considered to be valid, all the Joint Holders who are the Parties to a given Agreement must sign consistent statements of will.
6. The Client can grant the following power of attorney:
 - 1) specific power of attorney whereunder the attorney is authorized to take up activities specified in the wording of the power of attorney;
 - 2) special power of attorney whereunder the attorney is authorized to take up one or more activities indicated in detail in the wording of the power of attorney.
7. The Power of attorney referred to in clause 1 above can be granted for an indefinite term (until notice) or a definite term. If the term of a power of attorney is not specified, the power of attorney shall be deemed to be valid for an indefinite term.
8. A power of attorney shall not be granted conditionally.
9. A power of attorney can be modified or revoked by the Client solely on the basis of the Client's written statement of will signed at and submitted to the Bank.
10. A power of attorney shall expire as a result of: the expiry or termination of the Agreement, the revocation of the attorney by the Client or the expiry of the term of power of attorney as well as the Client's death or the Client's announced bankruptcy unless the power of attorney provides otherwise, or upon the death of the attorney.
11. An attorney holding powers related to the Account shall not be empowered to conclude the Agreement or submit Orders or Instructions under the Service unless the attorney is also authorized to act on the Client's behalf in respect of the Service in accordance with the foregoing provisions.
12. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to the relations between the Client and Funds if the procedure and rules of granting powers of attorney are defined in particular Fund's Articles of Association.
13. The Attorney shall not be empowered to submit a statement of will on behalf of the Client containing the information necessary to conduct the Assessment of Knowledge and Experience or to define the Client's Risk Profile.

INFORMATION ON RISKS ARTICLE 10

1. Unless specified otherwise, investments in Products shall not be an obligation of and shall not be guaranteed by the Bank or by any of the affiliates or subsidiaries of Citigroup, except for those Products in respect of which the Bank or a subsidiary or an affiliate of Citigroup acts as the Issuer or the guarantor. Investments in the Products shall not constitute a bank deposit. Investments in the Products are exposed to an investment risk, including the possibility of loss of the entire or part of invested capital. Past performance of investments in the Products shall not be a guarantee of generating profits in the future. The value of the Products may rise or fall. Unless indicated otherwise, investments in the Products shall not be guaranteed by the Polish State Treasury, the Bank Guarantee Fund or any other government agencies.
2. Prior to the submission of the Order or an Instruction concerning Fund Participation Titles, the Client is requested to get familiar with Key Information for Investors, Information Prospectus and Articles of Association of a given Fund so as to learn about risks related to investments in Participation Titles of a given Fund. The wording of Key Information for Investors Information Prospectuses and Articles of Association of the Funds may be amended. Current copies of those documents are made available on the website www.citihandlowy.pl. Orders shall be executed in accordance with the rules and procedures specified in the above documents at the moment of accepting and executing the Orders.
3. Before submitting an Order to purchase a Structured Note, the Client should get familiar with the document titled "Information for the Client", in which subscription terms and conditions for a given Structured Note are described thoroughly, a document which contains key information concerning a given Structured Note as well as an issue prospectus and other materials released by the Issuer in accordance with applicable legal provisions.
4. Prior to the submission of the Order to conclude Dual Currency Investment Transaction, the Client is requested to get familiar with a document which contains key information concerning a given Dual Currency Investment Transaction.
5. After the Order has been executed, the Bank shall not be obliged to monitor or inform the Client of changes in the value of the Product such Order is related to.
6. The description of the Products and risks related to investments in such Products can be found in a document available at the Bank titled „MiFID Information Brochure” and in documentation provided on submitting Orders, Instructions, on executing the Transaction.

GENERAL RULES OF SUBMITTING ORDERS AND INSTRUCTIONS ARTICLE 11

1. Unless the Terms and Conditions provide otherwise in Chapter II or III concerning particular Services and on condition that a given Access Channel is made available for a given Service, the Client can place Orders and Instructions and conclude Transactions being the subject-matter of the Order in the following manner:
 - 1) in writing in the presence of the Bank's employee;
 - 2) through phone banking service – CitiPhone;
 - 3) through Citibank Online service;

 - 5) by Mobile Application.
2. At the Bank's Branches, on the Bank's website (www.citihandlowy.pl) and in Citibank Online service or through CitiPhone, the Bank provides:
 - 1) the list of the Bank's Branches, at which the Client can place Orders and Instructions and conclude Transactions which are the subject-matter of the Orders;

ARTICLE 12

1. The successful completion of the Client identification process according to the procedure and rules adopted by the Bank for a given Access Channel shall be a condition precedent of placing the Order or an Instruction and of concluding the Transaction which is the subject-matter of the Order through Access Channels.
2. The Client identification process shall be conducted by:
 - 1) at the Bank's Branches – by Citicard and Identification Code assigned to Citicard or an identity document;
 - 2) Citibank Online service – on first login – by Citicard and Identification Code assigned to Citicard, changed respectively to username and password (this change occurs when this Access Channel is made accessible to a given Service);
 - 3) telephone banking service CitiPhone – by correct Identification Code;
 - 4) Telephone Line – by Identification Code;
 - 5) Mobile Application – on individual terms set forth in the Technical Conditions of the Mobile Application.
3. The Bank shall confirm to the Client the acceptance of the Order after the Bank has received it, in the form of Order Confirmation. This shall not apply to any Orders accepted through CitiPhone or Telephone Line.
4. Having executed the Order related to Debt Securities and within the Dual Currency Investment Transaction, the Bank shall send Confirmation of Order Execution to the Client in the form of Durable Medium. Confirmation of Order Execution concerning Debt Securities or the Dual Currency Investment Transaction shall also constitute Order Confirmation and the delivery of Confirmation of Order Execution to the Client shall also be considered as the Bank's fulfillment of the obligation in the scope of the delivery of Order Confirmations referred to in clause 3 above.
5. The signature specimen card shall be used to verify signatures on the Order or an Instruction.

ARTICLE 13

1. The Order shall contain the elements indicated in:
 - 1) Article 31 clause 6 of the Terms and Conditions – for the Service of the acceptance and transmission of Orders to purchase and repurchase, and other statements of will concerning Fund Participation Titles;
 - 2) Article 39 clause 1 of the Terms and Conditions – for the Service of the execution of Orders to purchase or sell Debt Securities;
 - 3) Article 47 clause 1 of the Terms and Conditions – for the Service of the execution of Orders to conclude Dual Currency Investment Transactions.
2. The Client shall be obliged to place Orders and Instructions in a legible and express manner not misleading as to their meaning, contents and authenticity. Orders and Instructions shall also be compliant with the Agreement and the Terms and Conditions. The Order or the Instruction concerning Participation Titles shall not infringe Articles of Association of a given Fund.
3. In the event that such obligation comes from the legal provisions or the provisions of the Fund's Articles of Association or Information Prospectus, the Bank/Investment Company may request the Client to provide additional information necessary to accept and transmit the Order or to execute an Instruction. Any failure to provide such additional information may result in the Bank/Investment Company's refusal to accept and/or transmit the Order or conclude the Transaction designated in the Instruction. The Bank shall notify the Client forthwith of such refusal.
4. Orders and Instructions placed at the Bank's Branches shall only be accepted during the working hours of the Bank's Branches.
5. The Client's Order or Instruction may include additional terms and conditions of their execution if they are not contradictory to the provisions of the Terms and Conditions and in relation to the Orders – terms and conditions of executing the Transaction at the execution venue they are transmitted to.
6. In the case of any uncertainties as to the identity of the person who places the Order or an Instruction or any inconsistencies in the contents of the Order or the Instruction, the Bank reserves the right to confirm by phone the Orders and the Instructions placed by the Client through Access Channels and to refrain from processing the Client's Orders or Instructions until such confirmation has been received from the Client.
7. The Client shall not cancel or modify any placed Orders concerning the purchase and repurchase of Fund Participation Titles, the purchase or sale of Debt Securities (with the reservation made that the Order concerning the purchase of a Structured Note can be cancelled in the subscription term but no later than by the Order execution day) or the Orders concerning the conclusion of Dual Currency Investment Transactions.

REFUSAL, SUSPENDED ACCEPTANCE OR TRANSMISSION OF ORDER OR INSTRUCTION

ARTICLE 14

1. The Bank shall refuse to accept the Client's Order or Instruction if:
 - 1) Order/Instruction does not contain all the elements required by the applicable legal provisions, these Terms and Conditions if their scope is specified therein;
 - 2) Client identification process was not completed successfully;
 - 3) Order/Instruction is not consistent with the provisions of the Terms and Conditions;
 - 4) there are inconsistencies, ambiguities or uncertainties within the Order or the Instruction.

The Bank may suspend the acceptance or transmission of Orders and Instructions for the time period through which access to Access Channels is suspended as a result of a failure of an information system used by the Bank, or the entity which acts on behalf of the Fund the Order is being transmitted to. Information concerning such suspension shall be announced on the Bank's website or it shall be made available by CitiPhone. The Bank's liability for damage caused to the Client as a result of such suspension shall not be excluded unless such damage is caused by circumstances for which the Bank is not liable.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITION ON WHICH THE BANK EXECUTES ORDERS AND ACCEPTS AND TRANSMITS ORDERS

ARTICLE 15

1. The Bank shall execute the Orders concerning Debt Securities and in the scope of Dual Currency Investment Transactions as well as the Bank shall accept and transmit the Orders concerning the purchase and repurchase of Fund's Participation Titles on the basis of these Terms and Conditions and the Policy of Order Execution and Acting in the Best Interests of the Client. Prior to the provision of the Services referred to in Article 1 clause 1 sub-clause 1 items a) – b) of these Terms and Conditions, the Bank shall obtain the Client's consent to the Policy of Order Execution and Acting in the Best Interests of the Client and to the execution of the Client's Order concerning Debt Securities or within Dual Currency Investment Transactions over-the-counter (beyond a regulated market, an alternative trading system, an organized trading platform).
2. The Client can grant the consent referred to in clause 1 through Citibank Online, in writing or by phone through Citiphone or Telephone Line. The Client's consent is a condition precedent for the provision of the Services mentioned in clause 1 above.
3. The Bank shall execute Orders in Debt Securities and within Dual Currency Investment Transactions by concluding on its account transactions with the Client being the ordering party, concerning Debt Securities and Dual Currency Investment Transactions.
4. When executing the Clients' Orders, the Bank shall fulfil the following conditions:
 - 1) ensures that the Orders are executed promptly and are thoroughly recorded and allocated;
 - 2) executes sequentially and promptly Clients' Orders concerning Debt Securities and Debt Securities unless the nature of a particular Order or current market conditions make the handling of the Orders in the above manner impossible or their execution would be in conflict with the Client's interest; and
 - 3) informs the Client being Retail Client of any and all major difficulties that might threaten the proper execution of the Client's Orders, forthwith when the Bank becomes aware of such difficulties.
5. The Bank shall accept and transmit the Orders concerning the purchase and repurchase, and other statements of will within Fund Participation Titles within the time limit stipulated in Article 31 sub-clause 3 of these Terms and Conditions.
6. The Bank shall accept and transmit each of the Client's Orders in an individual manner (no acceptance, combination and transmission of Clients' orders as one joint order).
7. Chapter II of these Terms and Conditions shall specify detailed conditions on which the Bank shall execute the Orders concerning Debt Securities and within Dual Currency Investment Transactions as well as on which the Bank shall accept and transmit the Orders concerning the purchase and repurchase of Fund Participation Titles.

LIABILITY OF THE BANK

ARTICLE 16

1. In connection with the Bank's failure to perform or the Bank's undue performance of any of its obligations under the Agreement and Transactions concluded on its basis, the Bank shall be liable to the Client for damage suffered by the Client, according to the general rules specified in the legal provisions.
2. The Issuer shall be liable for its obligations resulting from the Products being the subject-matter of the Transactions.
3. In the event that the Agreement is concluded by the Joint Holders, they shall be liable for effects of the execution of their, respectively, Orders or Instructions caused by their distinct decisions. If the execution of one Order or Instruction makes the execution of another Order or Instruction entirely or partially impossible, then the Bank may restrain from executing them until a written evidence is demonstrated that the Joint Holders who have placed such Orders or Instructions have formulated their common and coherent position, or until they have presented a respective valid court order issued by a competent court. If this is the case, the Bank shall contact the Joint Holders immediately.
4. Foreign legal provisions or market regulations applied in the venue in which Foreign Securities have been issued or in the venue in which they have been dematerialised, or in which they are registered in the System, may impose specified obligations on the Bank or entities which act on its behalf, concerning the custody of Foreign Securities for the Client or the Client's possession of Foreign Securities. Such provisions or market regulations may introduce restrictions other than those applied in the territory of the Republic of Poland or may require that Clients for whom the Foreign Securities are recorded in the Register take up specified activities.

COSTS, FEES AND COMMISSIONS AS WELL BENEFITS ACCEPTED FROM THIRD PARTIES

ARTICLE 17

1. In connection with the rendered Services, the Bank shall collect fees and commissions from the Client according to the rules specified in the Table of Fees and Commissions.
2. In connection with the rendered Services indicated in:
 - 1) Article 1 clause 1 sub-clause 1 item a) of the Terms and Conditions, the Client shall cover costs of fees and commissions due and payable to the Funds and/or the Bank for the execution and acceptance of Orders in accordance with the provisions of the Fund's Articles of Association.
3. The information on current rates of the above-mentioned fees and commissions collected by the Funds shall be made available through Access Channels.
4. Notwithstanding the information on fees and commission contained in the Table of Fees and Commissions and accessible through Access Channels referred to in clause 3 above, in connection with the conclusion of the Agreements whereunder the Bank shall perform the Services, the Bank shall provide the information on all the costs and fees that the Client may incur as a result of the provision of such Services, taking into consideration investments in particular types/classes of financial instruments, the purchase or sale of which is possible within the Service ("Ex Ante Information on Costs"). The Bank shall provide the Clients with Ex Ante Information on Costs in the following manner:
 - 1) in the form of general Ex Ante Information on Costs contained in the document titled "MiFID Information Brochure", provided to the Clients in a paper form or through another Durable Medium before the conclusion of the Agreement. Such general Ex Ante Information on Costs shall include:

1. information on costs and fees related to the provision of a given Service,
2. information on costs and fees related to a given type of financial instruments the Service refers to, and
3. information on benefits accepted by the Bank from third parties

In the general Ex Ante Information on Costs, the Bank shall present the Clients with an illustration of the cumulative impact of all the costs and fees on the return on investment, however the illustration is based on estimated costs and fees that may arise on a specified assumed amount of investment in a given financial instrument.

- 2) In the case of the provision of the Service which consists in executing Orders on the Client's account concerning the purchase or sale of Debt Securities and in respect of the conclusion of Dual Currency Investment Transactions, as well as in connection with the Service of the acceptance and transmission of Orders to purchase and repurchase, and deliver other statements of will concerning Fund Participation Titles, the Bank, after the presentment of basic parameters of a potential Transaction but before the acceptance of the Order from the Client concerning the Transaction, shall deliver to the Client the following detailed Ex Ante Information on Costs:
 - a) information on costs and fees related to the provision of the Service that the Client will incur in connection with a potential Transaction;
 - b) information on costs and fees related to a given type of financial instruments the Service is associated with, to be incurred by the Client in connection with a potential Transaction; and
 - c) information on benefits accepted by the Bank from third parties in relation to a planned Transaction

In addition, within the detailed Ex Ante Information on Costs, the Bank shall present the Clients with an illustration of the cumulative impact of all the costs and fees on the return on a prospect Transaction, however the illustration is based on estimated costs and fees that may arise in connection with a Transaction planned by the Client in a fixed amount.

5. In connection with the provision of the Services, the Bank receives considerations from third parties. "MiFID Information Brochure" sets out the rules of accepting such considerations.
6. After the end of a calendar year, the Bank shall provide the Client with the annual information on all the costs and fees incurred by the Bank related to both the Services and financial instruments being the subject-matter of the Services and benefits accepted from third parties, if the Bank maintains a continuous relationship on the basis of the Agreement with a given Client throughout the year.

CLIENT DATA UPDATES ARTICLE 18

1. The Client shall promptly update any and all data at the Bank related to the provided Service.
2. In connection with the Services of the acceptance and transmission of Orders, the fact that the data have been updated at the Bank shall not mean that the data have also been updated at a Fund. For the purpose of updating data at a Fund, the Client shall place a separate instruction in this regard.

1. The Bank shall draw up a Confirmation of Order Execution and of the conclusion of each of the Dual Currency Investment Transactions. The Bank shall send the Confirmation to the Client immediately after the Transaction has been concluded.
2. To Confirmations of Order Execution the following provisions shall apply:
 - 1) Confirmation of Order Execution and of the conclusion of a Dual Currency Investment Transaction can be drawn up and delivered to the Client according to the Client's instructions as a separate electronic document which does not require signatures, to the Client's Primary Email Address after the receipt of the Client's consent, or as a separate document in writing sent to the Client to the mailing address indicated for the Account.
 - 2) Forthwith after the receipt of the Confirmation of Order Execution, the Client verifies data contained in the Confirmation.
 - 3) In the case of inconsistencies between the Confirmation of Order Execution and terms and conditions of the concluded Dual Currency Investment Transaction, the Client shall notify the Bank of such inconsistencies in the manner prescribed in the provisions of Article 19 of the Terms and Conditions. If such inconsistencies in the terms and conditions contained in the Confirmation of Order Execution are notified, the Bank shall, on the basis of data in the Bank's System, telephone conversations relating to the terms and conditions of the Dual Currency Investment Transaction recorded on electronic data carriers, and on the basis of other documents and materials relating to the Dual Currency Investment Transaction possessed by the Bank, verify objections raised by the Client and shall immediately notify the Client of the findings.
 - 4) If the inconsistencies between the terms and conditions of the Concluded Dual Currency Investment Transaction and the Confirmation of Order Execution sent to the Client are actually found, the Bank shall draw up and send to the Client a correct Confirmation of Order Execution.
 - 5) Notwithstanding any provisions of the Framework Dual Currency Investment Transaction Agreement which specify otherwise, if the Bank finds that the Confirmation of Order Execution contains an error or an obvious mistake in the contents of the Confirmation, then the Bank shall be entitled to prepare a correction of such Confirmation and to send or provide it to the Client without delay. The Dual Currency Investment Transaction shall be concluded upon the Parties' delivery of consistent statements of will as to the terms and conditions of a given transaction whether the Bank has or has not subsequently drawn up a respective Confirmation of Order Execution.

6) Confirmation of Order Execution concerning a Dual Currency Investment Transaction shall also constitute Order Confirmation and the delivery to the Client of the Confirmation of Order Execution within Dual Currency Investment Transaction shall also be considered as the Bank's fulfillment of the obligation in the scope of the delivery of Order Confirmation referred to in Article 12 clause 4 of the Terms and Conditions.

CHARACTERISTICS OF DUAL CURRENCY INVESTMENT TRANSACTION ARTICLE 49

1. The Parties agree herein that by concluding a Dual Currency Investment Transaction, the Client makes a specified Investment Amount in the Base Currency available to the Bank for disposal during the Dual Currency Investment Term, and after the completion of the investment on the Dual Currency Investment Completion Day the Client receives in return a consideration in the form of Interest on the Dual Currency Investment in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.
2. Interest on a Dual Currency Investment shall be computed at the Interest Rate and the actual number of days in the Investment Term, assuming that a base year includes 365 days for PLN and GBP and 360 days for USD, EUR and CHF. Interest on the Investment Amount shall not be changed in the Dual Currency Investment Term.
3. Dual Currency Investment Transaction is a different derivative financial instrument for which no liquid market exists. When choosing this investment, the Client must consider the fact that the rights the Client is entitled to under a concluded Dual Currency Investment Transaction cannot be transferred to any other person.

SETTLEMENT OF TRANSACTION ARTICLE 50

1. On the Dual Currency Investment Settlement Day, the Bank shall compare the Exchange Rate with the Reference Rate:
 - 1) if on the basis of such comparison it is found that the Base Currency has depreciated against the Alternative Currency or that it remained at the same level in the time period from the Dual Currency Investment Commencement Day to the Dual Currency Investment Settlement Day, the Investment Amount shall be returned and Interest on the Dual Currency Investment shall be paid in the Base Currency;
 - 2) if on the basis of such comparison it is found that the Base Currency has appreciated against the Alternative Currency in the time period from the Dual Currency Investment Commencement Day to the Dual Currency Investment Settlement Day, the Investment Amount shall be returned and Interest on the Dual Currency Investment shall be paid in the Alternative Currency after conversion at the Exchange Rate.
2. On the Dual Currency Investment Completion Day, the Bank shall credit the Client's account maintained within the Account in the Base Currency or the Alternative Currency with, respectively:
 - 1) Investment Amount along with Interest on the Dual Currency Investment less a tax due and payable in the Base Currency in the case specified in clause 1 sub-clause 1), or
 - 2) Investment Amount along with Interest on the Dual Currency Investment less a tax due and payable in the Alternative Currency in the case specified in clause 1 sub-clause 2).
3. The information on cash flows from the settlement of Dual Currency Investments and on the balance of the remaining Dual Currency Investments shall be sent by the Bank to the Client in the form of statements of the Account in accordance with the provisions of the Account agreement.
4. The Client may terminate all the Dual Currency Investment Transactions or a specified Transaction and demand respective Investment Amounts be repaid on the expiry of the period of notice, in writing, by CitiPhone or Telephone Line. The period of notice shall be two Working Days. On the day on which the period of notice expires the Bank shall pay out a given Investment Amount to the Client in the Base Currency less costs of the earlier termination of Transaction. A dual-currency investment classified as another derivative instrument combines the characteristics of a deposit and a currency option issued by the Client. Earlier termination of the Dual Currency Investment thus includes costs arising from the necessity for the Bank to acquire a currency option, and therefore to pay the option premium, in order to close the position arising from the terminated Dual Currency Investment. Such cost shall amount at the maximum to 20% of the Client's Investment Amount.
5. The Client shall not be entitled to Interest on Dual Currency Investment in respect of the Investment Amount paid out before the Dual Currency Investment Completion Day.
6. The Bank shall carry out any and all translations, conversions and calculations at an exchange rate proper for this type of Transactions on the Dual Currency Investment Settlement Day or on another respective translation, conversion or calculation day.

FEE ON DUAL CURRENCY INVESTMENT TRANSACTION ARTICLE 51

1. The Client shall pay a fee to the Bank for the conclusion of a Dual Currency Investment Transaction. The amount of the fee shall be defined each time after the Bank has analyzed proposed terms and conditions of a Dual Currency Investment Transaction.
2. The rate of such fee payable to the Bank shall depend on the volatility of currency rates on the market, the level of the Exchange Rate and the level of interest rates, however in the case of maintaining the investment until the maturity date, the maximum rate of the fee shall not exceed 50% of the amount of total Interest on Dual Currency Investment. In the case of early termination of the Dual Currency Investment, the fee rate may be a maximum of 20% of the Client's investment amount.
3. The information on the amount of the fee shall be provided to the Client before placing the Order to Commence Dual Currency Investment on the basis of the Client's enquiry. A specified amount of the fee shall constitute one of the conditions of Dual Currency Investment Transaction contained in the Order to Commence a Dual Currency Investment.

CHAPTER III RULES OF PROVIDING THE MAINTENANCE OF ACCOUNTS AND REGISTERS

Part I. General Provisions

ARTICLE 52

In the case of inconsistencies between the provisions of Chapter II and III of the Terms and Conditions, the provisions of Chapter II shall be conclusive. The provisions set forth in Chapter I shall apply to any matters not regulated in this Chapter.

CONCLUSION OF AGREEMENT

ARTICLE 53

1. The Bank shall maintain Accounts and Registers according to the rules set out in the Terms and Conditions in the following scope:
 - 1) maintenance of Securities Accounts for the Clients who entered into the Agreement before 24 January 2016; and
 - 2) maintenance of the Foreign Securities Register and an Auxiliary Account with the Foreign General Securities Depository (Foreign GSD).
2. The Account or the Register shall be opened at the moment of concluding the Agreement in the framework of the Services referred to in Article 1 clause 1 sub-clause 1) letter c) of the Terms and Conditions.

TRANSFER OF RIGHTS

ARTICLE 54

1. The Client shall inform the Bank of any and all legal events which impact the existence and contents of rights registered by the Bank, including security established for the Bank and shall also present respective documents to the Bank to confirm such status, required by legal provisions.
2. The Bank shall take up activities related to the transfer of Securities sold by the Client as a result of the Transaction or a legal event, on the secondary market over-the-counter:
 - 1) after the Client has presented respective documents which indicate a basis for the transfer of Securities, or
 - 2) on the basis of an Instruction received in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and after settlement has been made unless the legal provisions require other activities to be taken up so that the Securities could be transferred.
3. An agreement whereunder its parties are obliged to transfer rights from Securities shall effect such transfer of rights after the transaction has been settled at the NDS, if necessary, and after the Bank has made a respective entry on the Securities Account or in the Register.
4. In the event that the Securities are purchased as a result of an event which invokes by virtue of law the transfer of rights from such securities, an entry on the Securities Account or in the Register shall be made at the purchaser's request after documents which demonstrate the transfer of rights, specifically a valid court order or another evidence of the occurrence of the event that invoked the transfer of rights have been presented. The Bank shall be entitled to request additional documents, in the form indicated by the Bank, provided that such documents are necessary to establish whether the event which invoked by virtue of law the transfer of rights from Securities had actually occurred and to make a respective entry on the Securities Account or in the Register.
5. The procedure and conditions according to which Foreign Securities are transferred, are specified in Chapter II Part III of the Terms and Conditions.

ARTICLE 55

1. The Client may place the Instruction to transfer Securities from the Securities Account to the Client's Securities account maintained by another entity.
2. The Bank shall take up the activities required so that the Securities could be transferred on dates specified in Regulation, after the Instruction referred to in clause 1 above has been placed.

ARTICLE 56

1. Securities can be transferred if there are no limitations known to the Bank as to the free disposal of the Securities being the subject-matter of the instruction concerning their transfer.
2. The limitations as to the free disposal of Securities include, specifically, the establishment of a lien or blockage on the Securities being the subject-matter of the instruction, seizure in connection with debt enforcement or security, or blocking them for another purpose, pursuant to the applicable legal provisions.
3. The Bank may refuse to take up the activities related to the transfer of Securities if in the Bank's opinion there are reasons, ensuing from the documents referred to in Article 62 clause 2 sub-clause 1 above, for considering such transfer of Securities as an attempt to circumvent legal provisions.
4. The Bank shall refuse to take up the activities related to the transfer of Securities if it can clearly be inferred from the documents referred to in Article 62 clause 2 sub-clause 1 above that the transfer of such securities is in conflict with law.
5. The Client shall be notified of the refusal to take up the activities by the Bank related to the transfer of Securities.
6. In the case of a failure to meet the requirements of the effective transfer envisaged in these Terms and Conditions, cash considerations obtainable from the Securities shall be performed for a person for whom the Securities on the Securities Account or in the Register are registered.
7. If the Bank is not notified in accordance with the provisions of Article 62 clause 2 of the Terms and Conditions by any of the parties to the agreement concerning the transfer of rights from Securities of the fact of concluding such agreement on the Rights Discontinuation Day (specified in the terms and conditions of issue) at the latest or on another day applied for the purpose of identifying the entity to which considerations from the Securities are to be paid out in accordance with the respective legal provisions, the person entitled to receive the consideration from the Securities covered by such agreement shall still be the Client holding the Securities Account on which such Securities are registered.

ESTABLISHMENT OF SECURITY ARTICLE 57

1. Subject to the provisions of clause 2 below, the provisions of this Chapter concerning the establishment of security shall only apply to the Clients who have secured the claims by encumbering Debt Securities registered on the Securities Account in connection with agreements concluded with third parties.
2. The Client shall not establish any security of claims on Foreign Securities if such Securities are registered on the Auxiliary Account or in the Register.
3. The Bank shall not conclude with Individual Clients any agreements concerning financial security which consists of the transfer of a legal title to funds or Clients' Securities in favor of the Bank for the purpose of securing or covering present or future, actual or contingent, or potential obligations of such Clients.

ARTICLE 58

1. The Bank shall take up the activities related to the establishment of security of claims on Debt Securities only after the Bank has received a written statement from the Client in which the Client declares that:
 - 1) there is an unexpired monetary or non-monetary claim, including a future or contingent claim resulting from a specified legal relation;
 - 2) form of security and the manner of satisfying the creditor from the object on which security was established meet the requirements envisaged in the legal provisions, and
 - 3) security is established on Debt Securities registered on the Securities Account.
2. The Bank shall establish the facts enumerated in clause 1 on the basis of the balance in the Securities Account and a presented agreement on the establishment of security and a document on the basis of which the Bank is able to identify a given secured claim.
3. The Bank shall retain a copy of the agreement on the establishment of security, signed by an authorized employee, stamped and dated on behalf of the Bank. The Bank may also demand that a copy of the document on the basis of which the Bank is able to identify a given secured claim be submitted.

ARTICLE 59

1. The Bank may refuse to take up activities related to the establishment of security of claims on Debt Securities registered on the Securities Account, when based on the presented agreement on the establishment of security or the document on the basis of which the Bank is able to identify a given secured claim, the Bank suspects that their purpose is to circumvent applicable laws..
2. The Bank shall refuse to take up activities related to the establishment of security of claims on Debt Securities registered on the Securities Account, when based on the presented agreement on the establishment of security or the document on the basis of which the Bank is able to identify a given secured claim, the Bank determines without any doubts that they are in conflict with law.
3. The Client shall be notified forthwith of the Bank's refusal to take up activities related to the establishment of security of claims on Debt Securities registered on the Securities Account.

ARTICLE 60

1. In the event that security of claims has the form of a blockade set on the Securities Account in respect of a specified number of Debt Securities coupled with granting an irrevocable power of attorney to the creditor to sell blocked Debt Securities and satisfy the creditor's claims by the proceeds so obtained, then the Bank, having received the agreement on the establishment of the blockade and the Client's instruction to set the blockade placed in writing or by means of electronic data carriers, sets the blockade on the Securities Account.
2. The Bank shall maintain the blockade in respect of Debt Securities throughout the term provided for in the agreement on the establishment of the blockade.
3. Throughout the term of the blockade, the Bank shall not execute any Instructions related to:
 - 1) lifting the blockade,
 - 2) selling blocked Securities; or
 - 3) transferring blocked Securities to another account.
4. The provisions specified in clause 3 above shall not apply to the transfer of blocked Debt Securities to another Securities Account maintaining at the same time such blockade if such transfer results from the performance of the provisions of the agreement on the establishment of the blockade or when the Bank ceases to maintain Securities Accounts.
5. The Bank may execute Instructions other than those mentioned in clause 3 concerning blocked Debt Securities only to the extent specified in the agreement on the establishment of the blockade.
6. Unless the agreement provides otherwise in respect of the establishment of the blockade, the Bank shall make the proceeds from such Debt Securities available to the Client in a manner prescribed by the Client, specifically dividends, interest and other monetary considerations performed for the Client by the debtor under the Securities.

ARTICLE 61

1. The Bank shall lift the blockade in the following cases:
 - 1) blockade set for an indefinite term, until notice or until the obligation secured by the blockade is fulfilled – immediately after the creditor has placed the instruction to lift the blockade, in writing or by means of electronic data carriers, or after the Client has placed the instruction to lift the blockade in the same forms, by the creditor's consent given in writing or by means of electronic data carriers;

- 2) term blockade, irrevocable – one day after the lapse of the blockade term specified in the agreement on the establishment of the blockade;
- 3) on the day on which the claim secured by the blockade or on the nearest day on which the order can be executed – immediately after the Bank has received from an investment firm documents which confirm that the creditor has placed an order to sell Debt Securities (in writing or by means of electronic data carriers, on the basis of a power of attorney granted by the Client in the concluded agreement on the establishment of the blockade). The blockade may be lifted in respect of a part of blocked Debt Securities;
- 4) after the lapse of the blockade maintenance term specified in the agreement.

2. The Bank shall promptly transfer the proceeds from the execution of the order to sell Debt Securities to the creditor in the timeframe specified in clause 1 sub-clause 3) above, in an amount sufficient to satisfy the creditor's claims under the agreement of the establishment of the blockade.

ARTICLE 62

1. In the event that security is provided in the form of a pledge on a specified number of the Client's Debt Securities registered on the Securities Account, the Bank, having received the pledge agreement and after the Client has placed a written Instruction to block the pledged Securities, shall block such Debt Securities on the Securities Account.
2. In the event that security is provided in the form of a registered pledge on the basis of the provisions of the Registered Pledge Act, the Bank shall block Debt Securities registered in the Securities Account after the receipt of the pledge agreement and after the Client has placed a written Instruction to block the Securities being pledged and a copy of the pledge to confirm that such registration has been made.
3. The Bank shall maintain the blockade in respect of pledged Debt Securities throughout the term provided for in the pledge agreements referred to in clause 1 or 2.
4. Unless a pledge agreement provides otherwise, the Bank shall make the proceeds, specifically interest, from or on such pledged Debt Securities available to the pledgee in a manner prescribed by the pledgee. On the basis of a power of attorney granted by the pledgee, the Bank can make settlements to the Client (pledgor) by use of obtained proceeds.
5. In the event that the debtor under pledged Debt Securities provides the principal consideration in respect of which the debtor is obliged under such Debt Securities, the Bank shall block the funds on the Client's (pledgor) Account so received. The funds remain blocked until rights the pledgor or the pledgee is entitled to are exercised. Funds obtained from the debtor's performance of consideration under pledged Debt Securities may be paid out only to the pledgor and the pledgee jointly, or at the request of one of them, they are deposited at a court deposit.
6. The Bank shall lift the blockade established on Debt Securities promptly after the receipt of documents which confirm that a respective pledge mentioned in clause 1 or 2 has expired.

ARTICLE 63

1. If the pledgee's claims are satisfied by taking over pledged Debt Securities for ownership in accordance with the procedure and on the conditions specified in the Registered Pledge Act, then the Bank, at the pledgee's written request, on the secured claim maturity day, shall transfer promptly the pledged Debt Securities from the Securities Account to an indicated pledgee's securities account, in a number which corresponds to the value of the taken over Debt Securities defined in accordance with Article 23 clause 1 of the Registered Pledge Act.
2. If the pledgee's claim is satisfied by selling Debt Securities in a public tender procedure in accordance to the procedure and on the conditions specified in the provisions issued on the basis of Article 24 clause 2 of the Registered Pledge Act, then the Bank shall, at the purchaser's written request and after the presentation of a tender report, transfer promptly the Debt Securities to the purchaser.
3. If the pledgee's claims are satisfied according to the provisions concerning an enforcement proceedings and consists in selling Debt Securities in accordance with the provision of Article 911(8) clauses 2 and 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the order to sell pledged Debt Securities placed by persons authorized to this effect in accordance with Article 911(8) clauses 2, 3 and 5 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the manner of handling the order to sell shall be governed by respectively applicable legal provisions.
4. The obliged entity shall provide the bailiff with funds obtained from the execution of the order to sell pledged Debt Securities, in the manner indicated by the bailiff in the demand referred to in Article 911(8) clause 1 sub-clause 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.
5. Once the pledge expires, the activities referred to in clauses 1 and 3 above shall not be taken up.
6. The provisions of clause 3 shall apply respectively to the Bank when the creditor under the Client's Debt Securities is being satisfied in the enforcement procedure which does not result from the established pledge.

CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT. CERTIFICATION ARTICLE 64

1. On the basis of data registered on the Securities Account, the Bank shall draw and issue to the Clients at the Clients' request, registered certificates of deposit and in respect of Foreign Securities entered to the Register – certificates for each type of Securities registered, respectively, on the Securities Account or in the Register.
2. At the Client's request, the content of a certificate of deposit, or a certificate may specify that portion of Securities which is registered on the Securities Account or entered to the Register, or all the securities.
3. A certificate of deposit shall not be purchased or sold in independent trading.
4. In the case of the damage, defacement or loss of a certificate of deposit or a certificate, the Bank shall issue, for a fee, a duplicate of the certificate of deposit or the certificate.

5. A certificate of deposit or a certificate shall reflect the entry on the Securities Account or in the Register as of the moment of issuing the certificate of deposit or the certificate.

ARTICLE 65

1. The Bank shall send certificates of deposit only to the Client's mailing address applicable to the Account.
2. The Bank has the right to correct an erroneous entry on the Securities Account or in the Register on its own, and shall notify the Client forthwith of this fact.

CLOSURE OF SECURITIES ACCOUNT / REGISTER ARTICLE 66

1. The Client shall have all the Securities disposed of before the day, on which the Agreement on the basis of which the Securities Account or the Register is maintained, is terminated.
2. If on the Agreement termination day, the Securities are still held on the Securities Account or in the Register, the Securities Account or the Register, respectively, shall still be maintained for the Client and the Bank shall keep such Securities in custody until they are disposed of by the Client. The Bank shall collect fees and commissions for keeping the Securities in custody in accordance with the Table of Fees and Commissions applied at the Bank.

ARTICLE 67

The Securities Account or the Register, on or in which the Securities are no longer kept (a zero balance on the Securities Account or in the Register), subject to the provisions of Article 21, shall be closed as a result of:

- 1) termination of the Agreement,
- 2) death of the Client or Clients being Joint Holders of the Securities Account or the Register – upon the Bank's receipt of the information about the death of the Client or the Clients.

Part II. Register and Auxiliary Account at Foreign GSD – specific provisions

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF KEEPING THE REGISTER ARTICLE 68

1. The Register serves to record per quantity and type, balances of Foreign Securities for the Client, registered in the System maintained by Foreign GSD.
2. The balance of Foreign Securities recorded in the Register reflects the balance of Foreign Securities on the Auxiliary Account maintained for the Bank in the System, however the records in the Register are final records and they indicate persons authorized under the Foreign Securities, while the balance in the Auxiliary Account maintained for the Bank in the System is recognized in a collective mode.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF RECORDING AND MAINTAINING FOREIGN SECURITIES BY THE BANK IN THE REGISTER ARTICLE 69

1. The Bank shall keep the records in the Register in accordance with the Agreement, Respective Legal Provisions, customs and practices defined by Foreign GSD. A record shall be made and maintained in the Register if a respective record is made and maintained on the Auxiliary Account maintained in the System for the Bank on which Foreign Securities are registered for the Clients in a collective mode.
2. The Bank shall maintain the Auxiliary Account maintained in the System on which Foreign Securities are registered for the Clients and shall not introduce any changes thereto without receiving the Client's Instruction concerning Foreign Securities the Client is entitled to, or in a manner not compliant with the content of such Instruction. Specifically, the Bank shall notify Foreign GSD of making entries in an account maintained in the System for the Clients and that no pledge or any other blockade can be established on them by Foreign GSD.
3. The Bank shall record Foreign Securities in the Register for the Client and deregister them from the Register only on the basis of the Client's Instruction and as a result of:
 - 1) settlement of the Transaction which concerns Foreign Securities and transfer of the records in the Registers maintained for the Bank's Clients, or
 - 2) settlement of such Securities in Foreign GSD and recording them on the Auxiliary Account maintained for the Bank by Foreign GSD on which Foreign Securities are registered for the Clients or their deregistration from the Auxiliary Account.
4. Foreign Securities shall be registered for the Client by the Bank in the Register and shall be deregistered from the Register as a result of settlement made by Foreign GSD, promptly after the Bank's receipt of documents from Foreign GSD which confirm respective changes in the Auxiliary Account maintained for the Bank by Foreign GSD on which Foreign Securities are registered for the Clients.
5. At the Client's request, the Bank shall provide the information obtained according to its best knowledge, concerning rights, customs and practices applied within the custody of Foreign Securities through Foreign GSD registered in the Register maintained for the Client by the Bank, required for the purpose of executing the Client's Instruction or exercising rights under Foreign Securities registered in the said Register.

TRANSFER OF FOREIGN SECURITIES ARTICLE 70

1. Foreign Securities entered to the Register can be transferred to the Securities Account maintained at the Bank on which the Securities registered in the System maintained by the NDS are recorded only if and when Foreign Securities have been registered by the NDS and can be recorded on an account maintained for the NDS in the System. The transfer shall be effected as a result of the transfer of Foreign Securities from the Auxiliary Account maintained for the Bank in the System to an account maintained for the NDS in that System.

2. For the purpose of effecting the Transfer of Foreign Securities to the Securities Account, the Client shall place at the Bank an Instruction to Transfer such securities to the Securities Account and shall indicate specifically in the Instruction the number of the account maintained for the NDS by Foreign GSD, on which the Foreign Securities being transferred are to be registered and if the Securities Account is maintained by an entity other than the Bank, the number of the account maintained by the NDS for that entity which maintains the Client's Securities Account. The Bank, acting on the basis of the Client's Instruction shall send to Foreign GSD the instruction to transfer Foreign Securities from the Bank's Auxiliary Account maintained in the System and to register them on the NDS account maintained in that System, after verification whether the Foreign Securities being transferred have been registered in the System maintained by the NDS.
3. Foreign Securities can be transferred if there are no limitations known to the Bank as to the free disposal of the Securities being the subject-matter of the Client's Instruction. The limitations as to the free disposal of Foreign Securities include, specifically, the establishment of a lien or blockage on such Securities covered by the Client's Instruction, seizure in relation to debt enforcement or collateral, or their blocking for another purpose, pursuant to the Respective Legal Provisions.
4. The Bank shall take up the activities required to transfer Foreign Securities within 5 Working Days from the day on which the Instruction referred to in clause 2 above was placed.
5. The Bank may refuse to execute the Client's Instruction if the NDS does not keep a register of Foreign Securities the Instruction relates to, or if the Client has not provided all the information to the Bank required in accordance with the Agreement so that the transfer could be effected.

TRANSFER OF FOREIGN SECURITIES TO ANOTHER ENTITY ARTICLE 71

1. At the Client's request, Foreign Securities recorded in the Register of Foreign Securities may be transferred to another entity if such entity is a direct participant, or through other entities of the System maintained by Foreign GSD or a participant of the System maintained by another Foreign GSD where Foreign Securities can be transferred to, and keeps the register of Foreign Securities which reflects records on the account maintained for such entity in the System. The transfer shall be effected as a result of the transfer of Foreign Securities from the Auxiliary Account maintained for the Bank in the System to an account maintained in that System for that entity, or to an account of Foreign GSD other than Clearstream Banking S.A. in Luxembourg that entity is a participant of if the Foreign Securities can be transferred to the System of that Foreign GSD.
2. For the purpose of effecting the Transfer of Foreign Securities to another entity, the Client shall place at the Bank an Instruction to Transfer such securities to another entity, and shall indicate specifically in the Instruction the number of the account maintained for such entity in the System on which the Foreign Securities being transferred are to be registered. The Bank, acting on the basis of the Client's Instruction shall issue an instruction to transfer Foreign Securities from the Bank's Auxiliary Account maintained in the System and to register them on an account of such entity maintained in that System.
3. In the event that Foreign Securities are settled by delivering:
 - 1) other Foreign Securities – the Client may authorize the Bank or the issuer of the Foreign Securities to procure such delivery by transferring other Foreign Securities to another entity, with no involvement of the Auxiliary Account, if such entity is a participant of the System maintained by Foreign GSD or a participant of the System maintained by another Foreign GSD where the Foreign Securities can be transferred to, and keeps the register of Foreign Securities which reflects records on the account maintained for such entity in the System;
 - 2) Securities dematerialised at the NDS – the Client may authorize the Bank and the issuer of Foreign Securities to procure such delivery by transferring such Securities from a securities account maintained by an investment firm for the issuer in Poland to the Client's Securities Account or another Securities account maintained for the Client by the investment firm in Poland.
4. The Bank shall take up the activities required to transfer Foreign Securities within 5 Working Days at the longest from the day on which the Instruction referred to in clause 2 above was placed.
5. The Bank may refuse to execute the Client's Instruction if Foreign Securities the Instruction relates to cannot be transferred to an entity indicated in that Instruction or if the Client has not provided all the information to the Bank required in accordance with the Agreement so that the transfer could be effected.

RIGHTS RELATED TO FOREIGN SECURITIES EXCERCISED THROUGH THE BANK ARTICLE 72

1. The Client shall be entitled to any and all rights under Foreign Securities recorded in the Register maintained for the Client by the Bank.
2. Proceeds obtained from interest or other payments resulting from the performance of obligations under Foreign Securities shall be transferred to the Client in the currency in which they were received to the Account no later than one day after the Working Day which falls after the day of their receipt. Property rights from Foreign Securities shall be provided through Foreign GSD directly by the Issuer of such Securities.
3. If the Client is requested to place an Instruction so that the rights from Foreign Securities could be exercised, such Instruction shall be placed by the Client at the Bank in the form and manner specified by Foreign GSD or the issuer of such Securities.
4. Instructions required so that the rights from Foreign Securities referred to in clause 4 could be exercised shall be placed by the Client within 5 Working Days before the day on which such rights are to be exercised.
5. At the Client's request, the Bank shall provide any and all information concerning the Client's rights from Foreign Securities obtained from the Issuer of such Securities or Foreign GSD.

Part III. Securities accounts – specific provisions

ARTICLE 73

The Bank shall maintain Securities Accounts on the basis of authorization obtained from the Securities Commission (currently the Polish Financial Supervision Authority) of 4 July 1996. Since 25 January 2016, the Bank has not concluded any Agreements with the Clients which concern the maintenance of Securities Accounts.

ARTICLE 74

1. A Securities Account serves for recording, per quantity and type, balances of the Client's Securities.
2. The Bank shall open an operational register for the Client, being a register of financial instruments and rights to receive financial instruments, which can be the subject-matter of orders to sell, maintained in the manner and on the conditions specified in the legal provisions.
3. The Client may hold only one Securities Account.
4. The Securities Account is further linked to an account which is used for separate recording of Securities:
 - 1) which are the subject-matter of the blockade;
 - 2) which are the subject-matter of a pledge;
 - 3) which are the subject-matter of financial security;
 - 4) on which other limited right in rem or a security of other type was established;
 - 5) which secure the performance of obligations in accordance with the applicable legal provisions;
 - 6) as to which an instruction to block was issued for another purpose, in accordance with the applicable legal provisions.

ARTICLE 75

Subject to the provisions of Chapter III of the Terms and Conditions, Securities shall be registered on the Client's Securities Account after the clearance of the Transaction across the Accounts if such registration does not require, in accordance with the legal provisions, the Transaction be settled at the NDS.

These Terms and Conditions shall become effective as of 13 February, 2026.
